

Please do not weaken the telephone privacy act - it should be our right not to be intruded on in our homes by telemarketers. I realize banks want our business but we can read the media ads, make appointments, research theirs firms, etc... We do not want them calling us in our homes disrupting the few quality moments we have with our families. PLEASE VOTE NO!!!!
Consumers have a RIGHT TO PRIVACY at home.